MEMORANDUM RE PRE-CONFIRMATION
FEES

Before the court are applications for payment of original (that is, pre-confirmation) attorneys' fees in these King County chapter 13² cases. They are but two of a considerable number of similar applications I have received since taking some of the Seattle chapter 13 docket. Addressing

1 the issues in these particular cases is not intended to suggest that the 2 counsel involved have done a better or worse job than any number of 3 others. Rather, the cases were essentially chosen at random as a 4 predicate for analysis.

5 The applications are based on generic projected services, and the 6 proposed orders leave formal applications detailing actual services 7 entirely to the discretion of the applicants. I conclude that I cannot 8 enter those orders, but will enter orders conditionally approving the 9 fees, and requiring noticed applications to be filed within 30 days of 10 confirmation. If counsel receive fees in excess of those ultimately 11 awarded, disgorgement will be in order.

12 13 I. BACKGROUND

14 The application in Joe requests an award of $3,000.00 for pre-15 confirmation services. It indicates that the applicant has rates for 16 attorneys at $250 per hour and for non-attorneys (not specified whether 17 paralegals, clerical, or other) of $50 per hour. It sets forth in a 18 table "[t]he general breakdown of time spent in services rendered or to 19 be rendered" The table lists various activities, and, for each, 20 the projected time, whether it is to be done by an attorney or staff 21 member, and the resulting charge. Interestingly, it totals the time as 22 20 hours, but projects 21.5 hours. Presumably the first hour and a half 23 are omitted from the total because that refers to an attorney's initial 24 consultation with the client, and is indicated as "no charge." More 25 interesting, the charges listed total $3,400.00, not $3,000.00.

28 MEMORANDUM RE PRE-CONFIRMATION FEES and

EXHIBIT A - ORDER CONDITIONALLY AWARDING PRE-CONFIRMATION FEES - 2 of 14

1 Although counsel has filed a declaration of no objection, the 2 application had been served only on the Trustee and the U.S. Trustee 3 (although other parties receiving notice via ECF would also receive it).
4 However, the application is consistent with the chapter 13 plan, served 5 on all creditors, which called for original attorney's fees of 6 $3,000.00, and noted that $2,000.00 remained unpaid.

7 In Mangini the application requests a total of $3,752.50 in fees 8 and costs, and indicates debtor had paid $2,201.00, leaving a remaining 9 balance of $1,551.50. The projected time is set forth on an exhibit, 10 similar to the table contained in the Joe application. All the math 11 works, in the sense that it is internally consistent, but attorney time 12 is charged at $280 per hour, rather than the $250 per hour set forth in 13 the application itself. As in Joe, the Mangini application is 14 consistent with the amounts set forth in the proposed chapter 13 plan.

15 In summary, both applications project services and charges based on 16 the applicants' experience with other chapter 13 cases; neither details 17 the services actually rendered to these particular debtors, nor details 18 any specific contact with creditors, the trustee's office, etc. Neither 19 is sworn, and neither sets forth whether there is an agreement or 20 understanding to share compensation.

21 The applicant in Joe requests I enter an order providing:

22 Original attorney fees and costs of $3,000.00 are hereby 23 approved as an administrative expense against the estate 24 pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 503(b), provided that fees paid to 25 debtors' counsel shall be based on the actual fees for time 26 and services rendered. The attorneys for Debtor(s) shall review the actual time records within thirty (30) days of entry of the Order Confirming Plan to determine whether a revised motion and/or order for additional fees or to reduce original fees is necessary, as the case may be. Upon submission of a revised order decreasing fees due, debtor's counsel shall refund to the estate any fees paid by the Trustee in excess of those allowed by the proposed revised order.

The proposed order in Mangini is similar, and provides that counsel "may submit, on full notice, a revised motion for original fees setting forth detailed time records reflecting"

In essence, both orders leave entirely to the discretion of the applicants, absent a motion by the trustee, U.S. Trustee, or other party in interest, or sua sponte order of the court, whether a detailed fee application will ever be filed.

II. JURISDICTION

These are core proceedings within federal bankruptcy jurisdiction, 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(A), referred to this court by General Rule 7 of the Local Rules, W.D. Washington.

III. ANALYSIS

Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code provides:

Compensation of officers

(a)(1) After notice to the parties in interest and the United States Trustee and a hearing, and subject to sections 326, 328, and 329, the court may award to a trustee, a consumer privacy ombudsman appointed under section 332, an examiner, an ombudsman appointed under section 333, or a professional person employed under section 327 or 1103--

(A) reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered by the trustee, examiner, ombudsman, professional person, or attorney and by any paraprofessional person employed by any such person; and

(B) reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses.

(2) The court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the United States Trustee, the United States Trustee for the District or Region, the trustee for the estate, or any other party in interest, award compensation that is less than the amount of compensation that is requested.

(3) In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded to an examiner, trustee under chapter 11, or professional person, the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including--

(A) the time spent on such services;

(B) the rates charged for such services;

(C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;

(D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;

(E) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and

(F) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

(4)(A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B), the court shall not allow compensation for--

(i) unnecessary duplication of services; or

(ii) services that were not--

1 (I) reasonably likely to benefit the debtor's 2 estate; or

3 (II) necessary to the administration of the case.

4 (B) In a chapter 12 or chapter 13 case in which the 5 debtor is an individual, the court may allow 6 reasonable compensation to the debtor's attorney 7 for representing the interests of the debtor in 8 connection with the bankruptcy case based on a 9 consideration of the benefit and necessity of such 12 Rule 2016 provides:

13 Compensation for Services Rendered and Reimbursement of 14 Expenses

15 (a) Application for compensation or reimbursement

16 An entity seeking interim or final compensation for 17 services, or reimbursement of necessary expenses, 18 from the estate shall file an application setting 19 forth a detailed statement of (1) the services 20 rendered, time expended and expenses incurred, and 21 (2) the amounts requested. An application for 22 compensation shall include a statement as to what 23 payments have theretofore been made or promised to 24 the applicant for services rendered or to be 25 rendered in any capacity whatsoever in connection 26 with the case, the source of the compensation so 27 paid or promised, whether any compensation 28 previously received has been shared and whether an agreement or understanding exists between the applicant and any other entity for the sharing of compensation received or to be received for services rendered in or in connection with the case, and the particulars of any sharing of compensation or agreement or understanding therefor, except that details of any agreement by the applicant for the sharing of compensation as a member or regular associate of a firm of lawyers or accountants shall not be required. . . .

EXHIBIT A - ORDER CONDITIONALLY AWARDING PRE-CONFIRMATION FEES - 6 of 14

1 Rule 2002(a)(6) requires 20 days' notice of applications for 2 compensation exceeding $1,000.00.

3 LBR 2016-1(e), entitled "Original Attorney Fees/Chapter 13 Cases," 4 sets up this district's presumptive fee and the attendant procedures:

5 Attorneys representing debtors in Chapter 13 cases 6 may be entitled to receive a fee of up to $1,800 7 without having first filed a written application 8 for fees. The fee shall be compensation for all 9 services rendered the debtor through entry of the 10 order confirming plan and shall include without 11 limitation the following: the filing of a chapter 12 13 plan in the form required by Local Bankruptcy 13 Rule 3015-1; filing with the chapter 13 Trustee the 14 Chapter 13 Information Sheet together with the 15 documents required by Interim Fed.R.Bank.P. 1007; 16 appearing at the § 341 Meeting of Creditors; 17 responding to objections to confirmation and 18 motions for relief from stay that are resolvable 19 without argument before the court; negotiating and 20 presenting unopposed or agreed orders assuming or rejecting leases, resolving disputes regarding the valuation of collateral or providing for pre-confirmation adequate protection payments to creditors; amending the initial plan as necessary to obtain an order confirming the plan; adding creditors to the schedules and plan; negotiations with the Department of Licensing; and review of the trustee's statement of filed claims.

Original attorney fees in excess of $1,800 may be requested by motion at any time before the confirmation order is entered, provided the fee request is accompanied by an itemized breakdown of time and is filed in the form and manner required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 2016-1(f).

21 And LBR 2016-1(f), regarding chapter 13 fee applications, requires:

22 In chapter 13 cases, all applications for 23 compensation for services and for reimbursement of 24 necessary expenses in excess of $500 shall be 25 served on the debtor, the chapter 13 Trustee, the 26 United States Trustee, all creditors holding allowed claims and all parties requesting notice pursuant to Interim Fed.R.Bankr.P. 2002, and shall include the following:

1 (1) a statement, by date, of the amounts of 2 compensation and reimbursement of expenses previously allowed and amounts paid;

3 (2) a narrative summary of the services 4 provided;

5 (3) an itemized time record of services for 6 which an award of compensation is sought, including:

7 (A) the date the service was rendered;

8 (B) the identity of the person who performed the service and the hourly rate of such 9 individual;

10 (C) a detailed description of the service rendered and the time spent performing the 11 service;

12 (D) the total number of hours spent and the total amount of compensation requested;

13 (4) an explanation of the effect the 14 additional compensation will have on the plan and plan disbursements to creditors; and 15 (5) an itemized time record for all services 16 provided since the date the case was originally filed.

17 While the Ninth Circuit, in a case regarding the Northern District 18 of California's "no look" guidelines, has approved the presumptive fee 19 approach in chapter 13 cases, its blessing is not without limits:

20 We emphasize that the no-look guidelines establish only 21 presumptive fees. If a Chapter 13 practitioner does not wish 22 to apply for fees under the no-look guidelines, he or she is 23 free not to do so and to submit instead a detailed fee 24 application using the lodestar method. Or, if the practitioner 25 has already submitted a no-look application and received presumptive fees, he or she is free to seek additional fees using the lodestar method if the presumptive fees have not provided fair compensation for the time spent on the case. Of course, a practitioner who chooses the latter approach must accept the possibility that the bankruptcy court may take a

1 fresh look at his entire fee application, not just that 2 portion of the application relating to "additional" fees.

3 In re Eliapo, 468 F.3d 592, 600 (9th Cir. 2006).

4 That no party in interest has objected in either case is of no 5 moment:

6 The bankruptcy court has a duty to review fee applications 7 notwithstanding the absence of objections by the trustee, 8 debtor or creditors. In re Busy Beaver Building Centers, Inc., 9 19 F.3d 833, 841 (3d Cir.1994).

10 In re Auto Parts Club, Inc., 211 B.R. 29, 33 (9th Cir.BAP 1997).

11 The Joe and Mangini applications each requests fees substantially 12 in excess of the presumptive $1,800 set by LBR 2016-1(e), and the 13 additional amounts are based on estimates, and for some services which 14 had not yet actually been performed at the time of the applications.
15 Those services which had been performed are neither specified nor 16 particularized to the case in question. It is evident that the 17 applications do not comply with the requirements detailed above (I 18 emphasize again that these are not egregious examples; rather, they 19 reflect local practice which has developed over some considerable period 20 of time). From all of this I conclude that I cannot enter the proposed 21 orders as requested. I will conditionally approve the fees, but require 22 counsel to submit applications in conformity with the statute and rules 23 within thirty (30) days of confirmation or disgorge any fees received in 24 excess of the presumptive fee set by LBR 2016-1(e).

25 I recognize that this procedure is, as well, arguably outside the 26 strictly-construed requirements of the rules quoted above, but regard it

1 an analogous to the procedure established by order in many large chapter 2 11 cases, allowing professionals to be paid by the debtor-in-possession 3 a substantial portion of the amounts billed monthly on statements filed 4 with appropriate cover declarations, and later reconciled against 5 interim fee awards. See In re Knudsen Corp., 84 B.R. 668, 672-673 (9th 6 Cir. BAP 1988); In re Mariner Post-Acute Network, Inc., 257 B.R. 723 7 (Bankr. Del, 2000). Under Knudsen, the pre-approval payment of fees is 8 limited to situations in which certain criteria, pertinent to chapter 11 9 practice, are met. Those criteria are irrelevant to the chapter 13 10 world, where the concern is that assessing the feasibility of the 11 debtors' plans requires establishing the fees to be paid under the 12 plans. The procedural requirements of Rule 2016 and LBR 2016-1 impose 13 both cost and delay, which in turn increase the fees, and cause 14 additional expense, creating a moving target. All this reduces payments 15 to creditors. I do not read Knudsen as precluding analogous procedures 16 in other appropriate circumstances, as I believe are presented here.

18 IV. CONCLUSION

19 Accordingly, I will enter orders in these cases³ conditionally 20 approving the requested fees, subject to application on full notice 21 within 30 days of confirmation, and authorizing the trustee to disburse 22 in accordance with the conditional orders pending the final orders. If 23 the compensation and reimbursement of expenses ultimately approved is 24 less than that counsel has already received, I will order disgorgement;
